Setting up a Company in St. Vincent and the Grenadines

General Guidelines

A detailed summary of the process that an entrepreneur must pursue in order to incorporate and register a new firm/company in St. Vincent and the Grenadines is set out below. It examines the procedures, time and cost involved in launching a commercial or industrial firm/company with up to 50 employees.

The information presented is part of data collection and is correct as of June 2010.

- Search and reserve company name

  Pre-approval of a company name is obtained by filing a request for name search and reservation (form 26) with the Commerce and Intellectual Property Office (CIPO) in advance of the related application. To avoid unnecessary delays, statutory instructions for form completion are distributed at CIPO. A fee of EC$ 25 is payable and the firm must be filed in duplicate original. Form 26 makes provision for the choice of three alternative names.

  On receipt of a request for name reservation, CIPO will conduct a comparative search of registered business and corporate names and will consider the overall suitability of the proposed having regard to the prescribed restrictions. Where a name is approved, it will be reserved for a period of 90 days from approval. It’s recommended that all applicants use the name reservation procedures to avoid the inconvenience of having to prepare a new set of forms should the first chosen name be declined.

- Registration with the Commercial Registry

The $950* cost represents the initial administrative fee. The required documents are the following: the articles of incorporation, the notice of directors, the notice of registered office, the request for name search and name reservation, the lawyer’s declaration, and a cover letter if any director does not have a middle name (the forms require a middle initial). After 2 days, if all documents are in order, the Registry releases a certificate of incorporation.

[This would normally take two days/Associated costs $950*]

- Filing of bylaws and notice of appointment of secretary

Upon retrieving the certificate of incorporation, the incorporator files two copies of the bylaws and the notice of appointment of secretary, and two days later, retrieves a registered copy.

[This would normally take two days/Associated costs $150*]

- Apply for a trade/industrial license

All businesses that conduct commercial or industrial activities must apply for a license. Government officials do not inspect the company before issuing the license. The license costs $100 on average, depending on the type and the amount of stock of each company.

[This would take two days/Associated costs $100*]

- Enroll for income tax at the Inland Revenue Department

The registrar sends a notice to the Inland Revenue Department once the company is incorporated and the company must then register at the Inland Revenue Department office.

[This would take one day /No charge]

- Enroll company and workers at the National Insurance Services

The Company submits a form with company information and a form for every employee hired. The company’s contribution to the National Insurance Services is based on each employee’s salary.
